Rules of debate at meetings

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.

If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- d An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- e If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- f An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- g A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- h If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman.
- i Subject to standing order 1(k) below, only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- j One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- k A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- l The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- m Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.

- n Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
- i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
 - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;
 - iii. to make a point of order;
 - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
 - v. in exercise of a right of reply.
- o During the debate of a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by.
- p A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.
- q When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
- i. to amend the motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
 - vi. to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;
 - vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
 - ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory requirements.
- s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.
- t Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(r) above, the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 5 minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.

1. Disorderly conduct at meetings

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) above is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

2. Meetings generally

■ Full Council meetings

■ Committee meetings

■ Sub-committee meetings

- a Meetings shall not take place in premises which at the time of the meeting are used for the supply of alcohol, unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.
- b The minimum three clear days for notice of a meeting does not include the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.
- c The minimum three clear days' public notice of a meeting does not include the day on which the notice was issued or the day of the meeting.
- ■ d Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution which shall give reasons for the public's exclusion.
- e Members of the public may make representations, answer questions and give evidence at a meeting which they are entitled to attend in respect of the business on the agenda.

- f The period of time designated for public participation at a meeting in accordance with standing order 3(e) above shall not exceed 15 minutes unless directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- g Subject to standing order 3(f) above, a member of the public shall not speak for more than 3 minutes unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting.
- h In accordance with standing order 3(e) above, a question shall not require a response at the meeting nor start a debate on the question. The chairman of the meeting may direct that a written or oral response be given.
- i A person who speaks at a meeting shall direct his comments to the chairman of the meeting.
- j Only one person is permitted to speak at a time. If more than one person wants to speak, the chairman of the meeting shall direct the order of speaking.
-   k Photographing, recording, broadcasting or transmitting the proceedings of a meeting by any means is permitted as long as it is conducted as laid down in the latest adopted version of the Council's policy 'Reporting of Meetings'.
-   l The press shall be provided with reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
-  m Subject to standing orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chairman of the Council may in his absence be done by, to or before the Vice-Chairman of the Council (if any).
-  n The Chairman, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the Chairman is absent from a meeting, the Vice-Chairman, if present, shall preside. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are absent from a meeting, a councillor as chosen by the councillors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting.
-    o Subject to a meeting being quorate, all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the councillors or councillors with voting rights present and voting.
-    p The chairman of a meeting may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may exercise his casting vote whether or not he gave an original vote.
- q Unless standing orders provide otherwise, voting on a question shall be by a show of hands. At the request of a councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.
- r The minutes of a meeting shall include an accurate record of the following:
 - i. the time and place of the meeting;
 - ii. the names of councillors present and absent;
 - iii. interests that have been declared by councillors and non-councillors with voting rights;

- iv. whether a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights left the meeting when matters that they held interests in were being considered;
- v. if there was a public participation session; and
- vi. the resolutions made.

s A councillor or a non-councillor with voting rights who has a disclosable pecuniary interest or another interest as set out in the council's code of conduct in a matter being considered at a meeting is subject to statutory limitations or restrictions under the code on his right to participate and vote on that matter.

t No business may be transacted at a meeting unless at least one-third of the whole number of members of the council are present and in no case shall the quorum of a meeting be less than three.

u If a meeting is or becomes inquorate no business shall be transacted and the meeting shall be closed. The business on the agenda for the meeting shall be adjourned to another meeting.

v A meeting shall not exceed a period of 2 hours except at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.

3. Committees and sub-committees

- a Unless the council determines otherwise, a committee may appoint a sub-committee whose terms of reference and members shall be determined by the committee.
- b The members of a committee may include non-councillors unless it is a committee which regulates and controls the finances of the council.
- c Unless the council determines otherwise, all the members of an advisory committee and a sub-committee of the advisory committee may be non-councillors.
- d The council may appoint standing committees or other committees as may be necessary, and:
 - i. shall determine their terms of reference;
 - ii. shall determine the number and time of the ordinary meetings of a standing committee up until the date of the next annual meeting of full council;
 - iii. shall permit a committee, other than in respect of the ordinary meetings of a committee, to determine the number and time of its meetings;
 - iv. shall, subject to standing orders 4(b) and (c) above, appoint and determine the terms of office of members of such a committee;
 - v. may, subject to standing orders 4(b) and (c) above, appoint and determine the terms of office of the substitute members to a committee whose role is to replace the ordinary members at a meeting of a committee if the ordinary members of the committee confirm to the Proper Officer 1 days before the meeting that they are unable to attend;

- vi. shall, after it has appointed the members of a standing committee, appoint the chairman of the standing committee;
- vii. shall permit a committee other than a standing committee, to appoint its own chairman at the first meeting of the committee;

- xii. may dissolve a committee.
- xiii. The chairman and vice-chairman of the council, ex-officio, shall be voting Members of every committee.

3. (a) Sports Ground Committee

Under the provision of the L.G.A 1972 S 101, the PC has agreed to delegate powers to a Sports Ground committee whose function will be;

- To manage the Sports Ground budget identified as such by the council. Expenditure above this limit must be referred back to the Parish Council for authorisation.
- To recommend fees and hire charges to the council
- To appoint, manage and review the handyman / groundsman
- To create a maintenance schedule for the handyman / groundsman and for the Chair to instruct him.
- To report to the Clerk any urgent maintenance to buildings and other property that might be required to be executed.
- To recommend any further maintenance, improvements and any other expenditures at the Sports Ground and its buildings to the Parish Council
- To report to the Clerk any problems with pitch preparations and the general ground maintenance according to the contractor's agreements with the PC.
- To ensure as far as is reasonable that the user groups follow their contractual obligations,
- To ensure as far as is reasonable that anyone misusing the sports ground or any equipment therein is warned regarding their behaviour and that they are reported to the Clerk and Parish Council, if necessary, for further action.

Appointment to the Sports Ground Committee of 4 councillors will take place at the Parish Council Annual Meeting and Councillors will serve an annual appointment. Councillors appointed or assisting the Sports Ground Committee who cannot attend a meeting will be entitled to appoint a representative who will have voting powers conferred.

The Sports Ground Committee will be a committee of Castlethorpe Parish Council with the option to co-opt other members representing users of the ground as necessary. It should meet quarterly and at any other time as necessary.

The public and Parish Councillors are permitted to attend all meetings and the meetings will be publicised according to normal council practice.

3. (b) Village Hall Committee

Under the provision of the L.G.A 1972 S 101, the Parish Council has agreed to delegate powers to a Village Hall Committee whose function will be;

- To manage the Village Hall budget identified as such by the Council. Expenditure above this limit must be referred back to the Parish Council for authorisation.

- To recommend any further maintenance, improvements and any other expenditures at the Village Hall to the Parish Council
- To ensure as far as is reasonable that the user groups follow their contractual obligations,
- To ensure as far as is reasonable that anyone misusing the Village Hall or any equipment therein is warned regarding their behaviour and that they are reported to the Clerk and Parish Council, if necessary, for further action.

Duties of the Bookings Clerk

The Bookings Clerk will keep the Village Hall diary and will accept bookings on behalf of the Parish Council noting it in the diary. The Bookings Clerk will issue a booking form to the user which the user will then submit to the Clerk/Responsible Finance Officer to the Parish Council together with a deposit. The Clerk/Responsible Finance Officer will issue an invoice for the full cost of hire as soon as possible following the event.

A copy of the booking diary plan will be passed to the Clerk/Responsible Finance Officer monthly prior to the Parish Council meeting in order that she/he is able to cross reference the invoicing.

A copy of the booking diary will be sent monthly to the caretaker.

Where there are organisations using the Village Hall frequently, normally more than once a month, the Clerk may collect fees monthly in arrears.

The role of the Booking Clerk may be undertaken by another approved person should this be necessary. An expenses allowance may be paid to the Booking Clerk as negotiated.

All using organisations must also have their own insurance including public liability cover of £5m (or other such sum as advised by the Parish Council) and certificates must be displayed on internal notice boards.

Appointment to the Village Hall Committee of 3 councillors will take place at the Annual Meeting of the Parish Council and Councillors will serve an annual appointment. Councillors appointed to the Village Hall Committee who cannot attend a meeting will be entitled to appoint a representative who will have voting powers conferred.

The Village Hall Committee may co-opt up to 3 other voting members representing regular Village Hall user groups. All other regular Village Hall user groups will be entitled to appoint a non-voting member of the Committee. The Chairman and Vice Chairman will be parish councillors and will be elected at the first meeting following the Annual Meeting of the Parish Council. The Committee should meet quarterly and at any other time as necessary.

The public and Parish Councillors are permitted to attend all meetings and the Agenda and Minutes of meetings will be publicised according to normal council practice.

3. (c) Finance Committee

Under the provision of the L.G.A 1972 S 101, the PC has agreed to delegate powers to a Finance committee whose function will be;

- b Correspondence from, and notices served by, the Information Commissioner shall be referred by the Proper Officer to the chairman. The council shall have the power to do anything to facilitate compliance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

21. Relations with the press/media

- a Requests from the press or other media for an oral or written comment or statement from the Council, its councillors or staff shall be handled in accordance with the Council's policy in respect of dealing with the press and/or other media.

22. Execution and sealing of legal deeds

See also standing orders 14(b)(xii) and (xvii) above.

- a A legal deed shall not be executed on behalf of the council unless authorised by a resolution.
- b Subject to standing order 21(a) above, any two councillors may sign, on behalf of the council, any deed required by law and the Proper Officer shall witness their signatures.

23. Communicating with Borough councillors

- a An invitation to attend a meeting of the council shall be sent, together with the agenda, to the ward councillor(s) of the Borough representing the area of the council.
- b Unless the council determines otherwise, a copy of each letter sent to the Borough Council shall be sent to the ward councillor(s) representing the area of the council.
- c Ward councillors may be invited to speak at the discretion of the chairman.

24. Restrictions on councillor activities

- a. Unless authorised by a resolution, no councillor(s) shall issue orders, instructions or directions.

25. Standing orders generally

- a All or part of a standing order, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, may be suspended by resolution in relation to the consideration of an item on the agenda for a meeting.
- b A motion to add to or vary or revoke one or more of the council's standing orders, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, shall be proposed by a special motion, the written notice by at least 3 councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with standing order 8 above.
- c The Proper Officer shall provide a copy of the council's standing orders to a councillor as soon as possible after he has delivered his acceptance of office form.
- d The decision of the chairman of a meeting as to the application of standing orders at the meeting shall be final.

26. Elections – Co-option

- a Under the Local Government Act 1972 (Section 87(2)) Local Elections (Parishes and Communities) (England and Wales) Rules 2006 that stand to cover the election by co-option of Parish Councillors, it is accepted that Castlethorpe Parish Council adopt the following process
 - 1) Notice to be posted stating a vacancy has occurred to be filled via co-option and inviting interested parties to complete an application form giving reasons why he or she would like to be co-opted onto the Council.
 - 2) Applications need to be in by specified date to be determined but to fall under the 60 days allowance for election of Councillor as governed by LGA above.
 - 3) At the next Parish Council meeting (which can be an general or extraordinary meeting), the Clerk offers all applications to the Parish Council.
 - 4) The PC must then decide to either :
 - (a) co-opt directly where the Parish Council will co-opt directly via vote (show of hands) by Councillors in public at next called meeting (which can be an general or extraordinary meeting).
 - (b) invite applicants to appear at the next PC meeting for an interview where all applicants are invited for an interview with the Parish Council at the next called meeting (which can be an general or extraordinary meeting), then a public vote by councillors via show of hands is taken.

If (b) is decided upon by the Parish Council then all applicants are invited to speak to the council prior to any voting must be provided with a prepared interview form as it is imperative that all applicants are treated alike in order that the arrangements are seen as fair. Applicants under such arrangements should be discouraged from any personal lobbying. Applicants should be afforded 3 minutes to speak.

Once the PC have decided on their preferred route:

- a) Notice of the election should be given in the agenda for the meeting of the Parish Council.
 - b) When the item is reached, the Chairman should call for the nominations, which should be duly proposed and seconded.
 - c) When all the nominations have been received a vote should be taken. It is usual for the candidate's names to be put in alphabetical order. This is done on a show of hands.
 - d) After the vote has been taken, the Chairman should declare the candidate who received the highest number of votes duly elected.
- b) The person elected must make a declaration of acceptance of office before, or at, the first meeting of the Parish Council following his election in the presence of a member of the Parish Council or the Proper Officer of the Parish Council. This declaration must be within 28 days of the successful election of the person to the Parish Council. The declaration is then retained in the parish records.

27. Document and Email Retention Policy

- a) All Legal Documents such as Deeds and Agreements will be stored in safekeeping by a Third Party such as a bank or solicitor. They will normally be held indefinitely but, should space become an issue, then the Clerk will invite the Council to resolve to dispose of them. In any case, this will not be less than 7 years after their expiry date. For purposes of clarity, licence and rental agreements for users of the village hall and sports ground do not fall in this category.
- b) All other written documents including inter alia Minutes of Meetings, Annual Accounts and tax records will be retained by the Clerk either at his office or in a storage facility for a minimum of 7 years.
- c) All electronic records including, where applicable, those in (b) above and substantive emails will be maintained indefinitely. In this context, 'substantive' means when an email has meaningful content and not just a simple response. Any email agreement for the Clerk to take action should be confirmed at, and recorded in the Minutes of, the next Parish Council Meeting. Reliance should not be made on an email exchange. Copies of electronic records will be held both by the Clerk and by a third party supplier such as Google. Should space become a problem, then the Clerk may delete such records but not before the later of 10 years and 7 years after the expiry of any legal agreement to which they refer.

- d Confidential records will be maintained in a secure manner unless they cease to be confidential. Staff records will be maintained indefinitely by the Clerk and, in the case of employment records of the Clerk, by the Chair with the Chair passing such records to his successor.
